Equipping Managers for Success

2025

New to management and feeling overwhelmed? Transitioning from a high performing individual to a confident leader can be challenging.

We are here to guide you and equip you for success. During our 1-day Equipping Managers for Success programme you will develop emotional intelligence, master communication, and learn how to use coaching techniques to engage your team effectively.

A 1 day in person programme, delivered by Penny Toogood - Proclaim Consulting.

You'll develop:

- Your identity as a manager
- Your skills as a manager by communicating with confidence & developing a coaching conversation style
- Your role as a manager - understanding your role, your team and the power of cognitive diversity
- Your development as a manager - the importance of feedback, managing difficult conversations and 1-2-1s that work

This highly interactive programme equips you with the tools you need to be an impactful and effective leader who is capable of leading yourself, and also a high performing team.

You will build emotional intelligence and learn how to overcome self-limiting beliefs, communicate with confidence, understand how to use a coaching style to improve engagement and performance, manage difficult conversations and have 1-2-1's that work.

THIS PROGRAMME IS OPEN TO MEN AND WOMEN

What others have to say

Anna Stewart

Queens University

This programme is perfect for anyone who has recently taken on management responsibility for the first time... It was a great opportunity to meet women from other organisations working across a range of different roles, and the entire day had such a relaxed, open and honest feel to it.

Chantelle

Allstate

I am thrilled to have gone on the effective manager course. I learnt so much about how to I think and how others may think too which will help me be great for my team.

Ryan Hiller

Aroma Hygiene Limited

I thought the length of the programme was great with plenty of useful information and examples. Being able to discuss different approaches with people in similar positions gave me the opportunity to re-evaluate what practices I need to put in place and how best implement them.
