Personal Growth Training 2025 EmpowerHer

Partners:

Do you want to build your profile and take the next step in your career? It can be difficult to figure out what success might look for you and how to be seen in a competitive business landscape. Whether you want to climb the ladder or try a new role, it takes confidence to define the direction that's right for you.

This bespoke training provides an opportunity for delegates to connect, learn and share experiences with other professionals across different sectors through group discussion and self-reflective exercises.

A 1 day in person programme, delivered by Jules Black - Linkubator

At a glance:

- Module 1: Your personal motivations, values and aspirations
- Module 2: How to ask the right questions and 'be heard'
- Module 3: How to create a strategic plan to design the future you want
- Module 4: How to advocate for yourself and overcome imposter moments

EmpowerHer is a transformative, career growth programme which has been specifically designed based on the feedback from our members, for ambitious young women who want support with personal and professional growth, self-confidence, and self-empowerment. During this 1-day in-person programme, delegates will learn more about their values, effective communication skills, strategic career planning, building a strong personal brand, overcoming obstacles like imposter moments, and developing assertiveness and negotiation skills.

What others have to say

Ciara

Women in Business

The programme was fantastic from start to finish. Jules brought an amazing energy to the room, empowering us to share our own experiences... I learned how to build a strong personal brand, working on my soft skills and optimising my LinkedIn profile. I would definitely recommend this course!

Tori Preece

Dale Farm Ltd

Jules is an amazing facilitator and makes this course extremely engaging. Great to have the opportunity to reflect on where we have come from, and start thinking about where we want to go.

Hannah McKeeman

NIE Networks

Jules was fantastic, good structure to day and good to meet new people from other companies and develop relationships.
